Persons with Disabilities

1.1 Employment of Full-Time Radio Employees

Jump to question: 1.1

Please enter the gender and ethnicity of each person with disabilities listed above (e.g. 1 African American female).

1.2 Major Programming Decision Makers

Jump to question: 1.2

Please report by gender and ethnic or racial group the headcount of full-time employees having responsibility for making major programming decisions. Include the station general manager if appropriate. Major programming decisions include decisions about program acquisition and production, program development, on-air program scheduling, etc. This item should result in a double-counting of some full-time employees; employees having the responsibility for making major programming decisions should be included in the counts for this item and again, by job category above, in the full-time employee Question 1.1.

1.2 Major Programming Decision Makers

Jump to question: 1.2

Of the full-time employees reported in Question 1.1, how many, including the station general manager, have responsibility for making major programming decisions?

1.6 Full-Time and Part-Time Job Openings

Jump to question: 1.6 ▼

Enter the total number of full-time and part-time openings that occurred during the fiscal year. Include both vacancies in previously filled positions and newly created positions. Include all positions that became available during the fiscal year, regardless of whether they were filled during the year. If a job opening was filled during the year, include it regardless of whether it was filled by an internal or an external candidate. Do not include as job openings any positions created through the promotion of an employee who stays in essentially the same job but has a different title (i.e. where there was no vacancy or newly created position to be filled). If no full-time or part-time job openings occurred, please enter zero.

6.1 Telling Public Radio's Story

Jump to question: 6.1

The purpose of this section is to give you an opportunity to tell us and your community about the activities you have engaged in to address community needs by outlining key services provided, and the local value and impact of those services. Please report on activities that occurred in Fiscal Year 2023. Responses may be shared with Congress or the public. Grantees are required to post a copy of this report (Section 6 only) to their website no later than ten (10) days after the submission of the report to CPB. CPB recommends placing the report in an "About" or similar section on your website. This section had previously been optional. Response to this section of the SAS is now mandatory.

Joint licensee Grantees that have filed a 2023 Local Content and Services Report as part of meeting the requirement for TV CSG funding may state they have done so in the corresponding questions below, so long as all of the questions below were addressed as they relate to radio operations in such report. You must include the date the report was submitted to CPB along with the TV Grantee ID under which it was submitted.

1. Describe your overall goals and approach to address identified community issues, needs, and interests through your station's vital local services, such as multiplatform long and short-form content, digital and in-person engagement, education services, community information, partnership support, and other activities, and audiences you reached or new audiences you engaged.

KLND radio is Striving to provide a Voice for the Standing Rock Nation. This includes covering all Tribal council meetings, We also engage with various members of the communities we cover to get a true feeling of the needs of our reservation. We are also constantly pulling new listeners from around the world on our stream who are enlightened to the daily problems but also daily joys of living on Standing Rock.

7.1 Journalists

Jump to question: 7.1

This section builds on the Census of Journalists conducted by CPB in the summer of 2010. These positions are the primary professional full-time, part-time or contract contributors to local journalism at your organization. The individuals in these positions will have had training in the standards and practices of fact-based news origination, verification, production and presentation. These are generally accepted titles for these positions but may not match position descriptions at your organization exactly. Please do your best to account for each professional journalist in your organization. Please do not count student or volunteer journalists.
